

HOMESCHOOL CHECKLIST

Research your state's legal requirements	Google 'homeschool laws in [your state]'
	Visit hslsda.org/laws/
Connect with local homeschool community	Google "homeschool in [your city, state]"
	Find out if there is a formal or informal community to join (co-ops, meetings, Facebook group, etc.)
Research homeschool methods	Classical education
	Montessori
	Waldorf
	Unschooling
	Eclectic
	Charlotte Mason
	School-at-Home
	Unit Studies
	Multiple Intelligences
Research curricula that align with your chosen method(s)	You don't have to stick to only one curriculum
	Your child's learning style may work better with certain curricula
	Be sure to use a variety of media (written, hands-on, online, etc.)
Develop your homeschool schedule	Your goals
	You time/day availability
	How structured/flexible you want it to be
	How many subjects need to be taught
	How many ages/grades you're teaching